

Call for Proposals

Research on Non-Communicable Diseases

The Project Director, Tamil Nadu Health Systems Project invites proposals from interested Medical students (Under graduate / Post Graduate) and Faculties of all departments in Government Medical Colleges of Tamil Nadu

The plan is to fund up to 25 selected research proposals, and each will be funded with Rs 10,000. The final research report has to be completed and the report should reach the Tamil Nadu Health Systems Project before 6th September 2016.

Main theme: Non-communicable Disease

- Sub-themes:
1. Environment and NCD
 2. Gender and NCD
 3. Economy / Financing and NCD
 4. Nutrition and NCD
 5. Behaviour / BCC and NCD
 6. Management / Service delivery and NCD

The case for support should cover the following:

1. Rationale for the proposed study identifying gaps in existing knowledge.
2. Objectives.
3. Overview of the methodology to be used (including timeline)
4. Expected outcomes.

Word limit: 2000 (including references)

The proposal along with the following annexure should be reach statencdcelltn@gmail.com before 24 hrs, 5th March 2016

Annexure

Details of applicant and guide (in case the applicant is a student) as per the proforma attached.

- a. Curriculum vitae of the applicant with clear responsibilities in the project.
- b. Students to mention the details of faculty willing to guide the project along with his / her consent letter.

-Sd –
Project Director

1. Full title of the proposed project

--

2. Applicant details

Please attach a CV for each principal and co-investigator

Principal Investigator

Name of Investigator
Designation / Year of Study- Course
Department
Institution
Institution address
Investigator phone number
Investigator e-mail address
Name of Guide (to be filled only if the applicant is student)
Designation
Department
Guide phone number
Guide e-mail address

Signature of Applicant

Signature of Guide