Read :

From the M/s Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited letter dated 16.07.2020 addressed to Hon'ble Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu.

ORDER:

In the reference read above, the M/s Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited has stated that the COVID-19 pandemic has become a global health crisis and requires the best collective efforts of humanity to overcome the enormity of the damages caused. The unforeseen outbreak and the extent of the spread has already created immense pressure on the State Government which has worked relentlessly in terms of extending the required aid through various initiatives including Medical and Financial assistance to those affected. As a part of our Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited (ZEEL)'s Corporate Social Responsibility initiative, they would want to extend their support in strengthening the medical infrastructure of the State by providing Ambulances and Portable ICU and this contribution will fortify Government's efforts in upscaling the public health care infrastructure of the State in overcoming the current crisis scenario.

Sl.No.	Initiative	Quality
1	Ambulances	45
2	Portable ICUs	5

2. The M/s Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited has requested the Government to accept their above request and to support to complete the Ambulance registration process under the Name of Government of Tamil Nadu to expedite the delivery of ambulance in multiple batches.

3. The Government after careful consideration of the request of M/s Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited to extend their support in strengthening the medical infrastructure and in upscaling the public health care infrastructure of the state in overcoming the COVID-19 pandemic situation have decided to accept the donation of 45 Ambulances and 5 Portable ICUs in principle and preliminary consent is accorded to process further.

4. The Project Director, Tamil Nadu Health Systems Project is directed to render assistance and to support M/s Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited to complete the ambulance registration process.
